From Comptroller, No 4088 dt 27.2.23

Forwards the report of enquiry on the claim to the Pallyar Pension of Rs 48-11-8 drawn by late Venkatarama Raju of the Anegundi Family & recommends that the vacant pension may be registered in the name of the eldest son of the deceased - Vardarajulu a minor & his mother appointed guardian, further the pension will be shared equally with Narasimharaju - the deceased's brother as directed in G.O. dt 22. XI. 1915.

The Comptroller's recommendation is wrong, for the original pension of Rs 48-11-8 which was registered in the name of the deceased - Venkatarama Raju in G.O. dt 22. XI. 15 was on subsequent representation by his younger brother - Narasimharaju was ordered to be separately registered in equal shares in the names of Venkatarama Raju and Narasimha Raju in G.O. dt 22. 2. 1916.

In the list of Pallyar Pensioners also their names are shown separately, each of them drawing their pensions independently.

SIR.

I have the honor to forward herewith a petition dated 29th September 1922 from Peddakrishnamma, widow of Venkatrama Raju, a pollegar of the Anegondi family reporting that her husband died on the 16th September 1922 and praying that the pension he was drawing may be continued to his son and registered in the name of the eldest of them namely Varadarajulu under her guardianship..

The late Venkatarama Raju was a Pollegar of the Anegondi family drawing a pension of Rs. 48-11-8 which he shared equally with his brother under G.O. No.Fl.2291-2/Sec.A.31-15-2 dated 22nd November'15. The petition was forwarded to the Tahsildar of Ananthapur for enquiry and report. The Tahsildar reports that the deceased Pollegar has left behind him two minor sons Varadarajalu and Yogeswar Raju and a daughter Meenakshamma. Also two widows Peddakrishnamma the mother of the children mentioned above and another who is insane, all living together. No counter-claims have been received so far. I therefore recommend that the pension of Rs.48-11-8 which the deceased Pollegar Venkatarama raju was drawing may be continued to his son and registered in the name of Varadarajalu under the guardianship of his mother Peddakrishnamma.

This pension was subsequently divided into two equal shares to be registered separately vide G.O. dt 22.2.1916 B

The pension drawn by the deceased is Rs 24-5-10 (Rs 48/11/8) reddakrishnamma. The pension will be shared equally with Narasimharaju, the deceased Pollegar's brother as direted in G.O. No. Fl-2291-2/S&A-31-15-2 dated 22nd November 1915. A

The record of enquiry may be kindly returned when done with.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. Satyaraj
